

#Setabun Market 2024, Books and Goods Flea Market

## Event Overview

We are pleased to announce the return of the Book and Goods Flea Market, Setabun Market 2024, after a five-year hiatus. This market, which began in 2015, aims to create new pathways to encounters with literature.

This year's theme is "Central Asia and Iceland" combined with "Cultural Experiences". It will be held in conjunction with the ongoing exhibition "The World of Manga Artists Kaoru Mori and Aki Irie", focusing on the settings of their representative works: Central Asia (from Mori's "The Bride's Stories") and Iceland (from Irie's "Go with the Clouds, North-by-Northwest"), providing an opportunity to deepen understanding of diverse cultures.

In addition to bookstores, general stores, and food stalls, there will be a special corner by writers and artists, Uzbek dance performances, Mongolian ger tent experiences, and more.

Come to Setabun Market 2024 to encounter and discover new people, things, and books! Please look forward to it.
